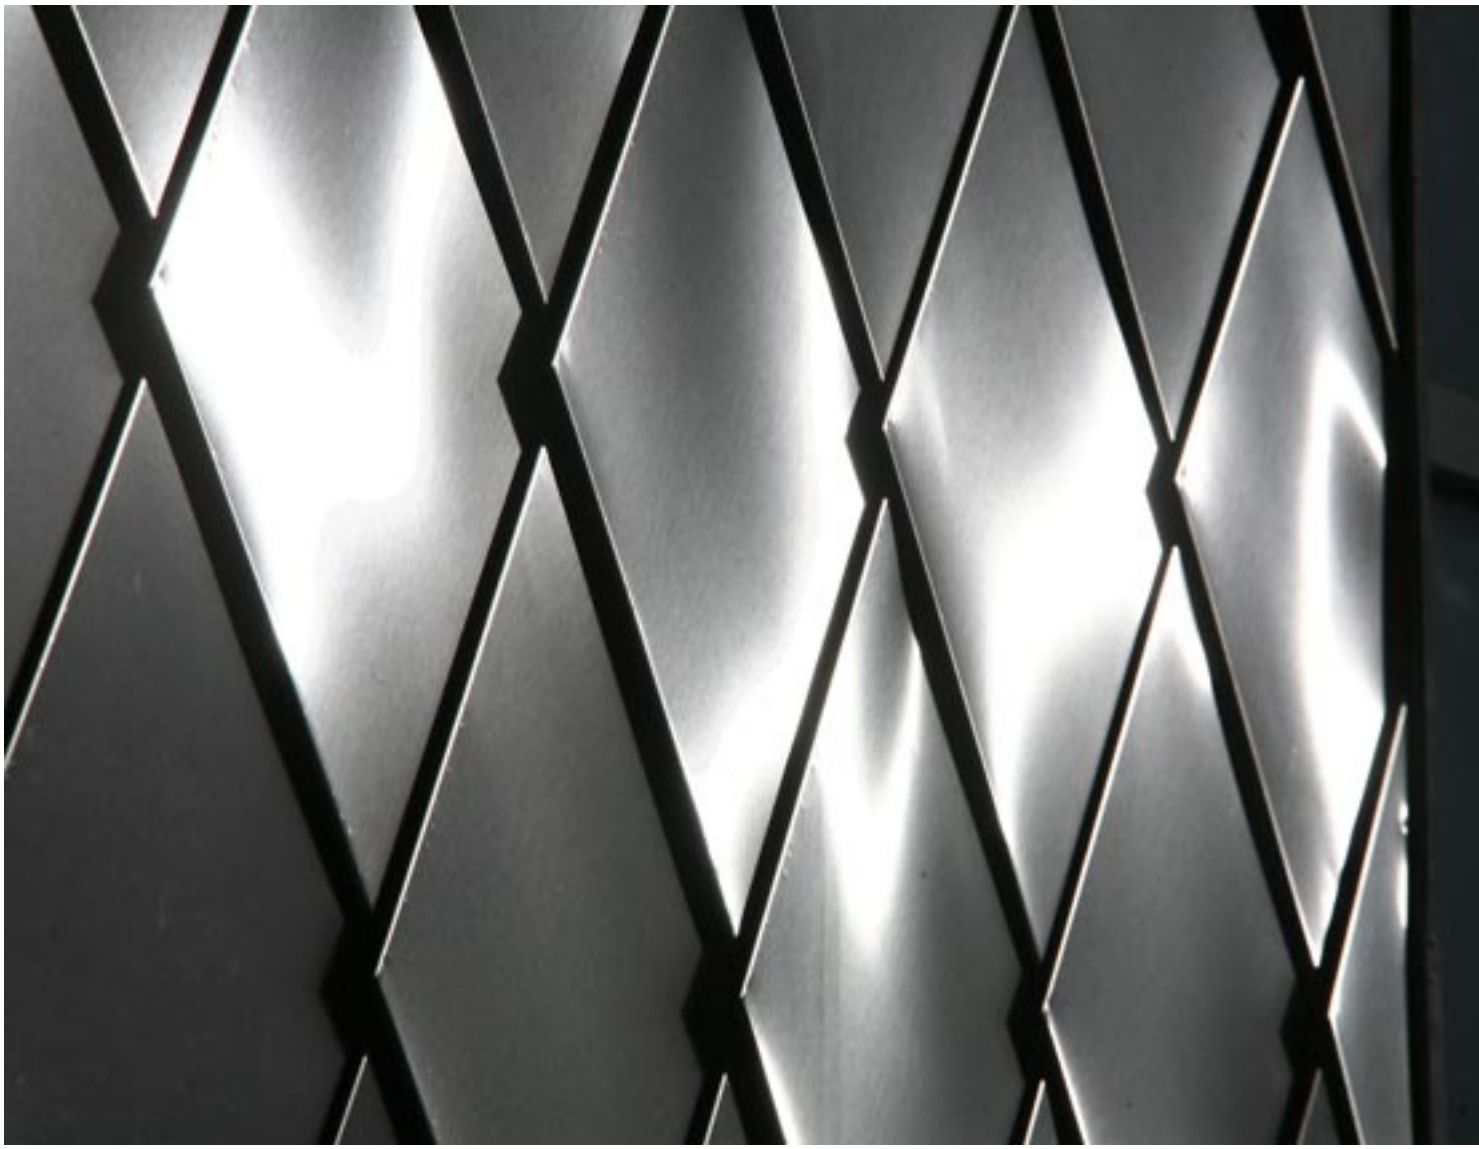
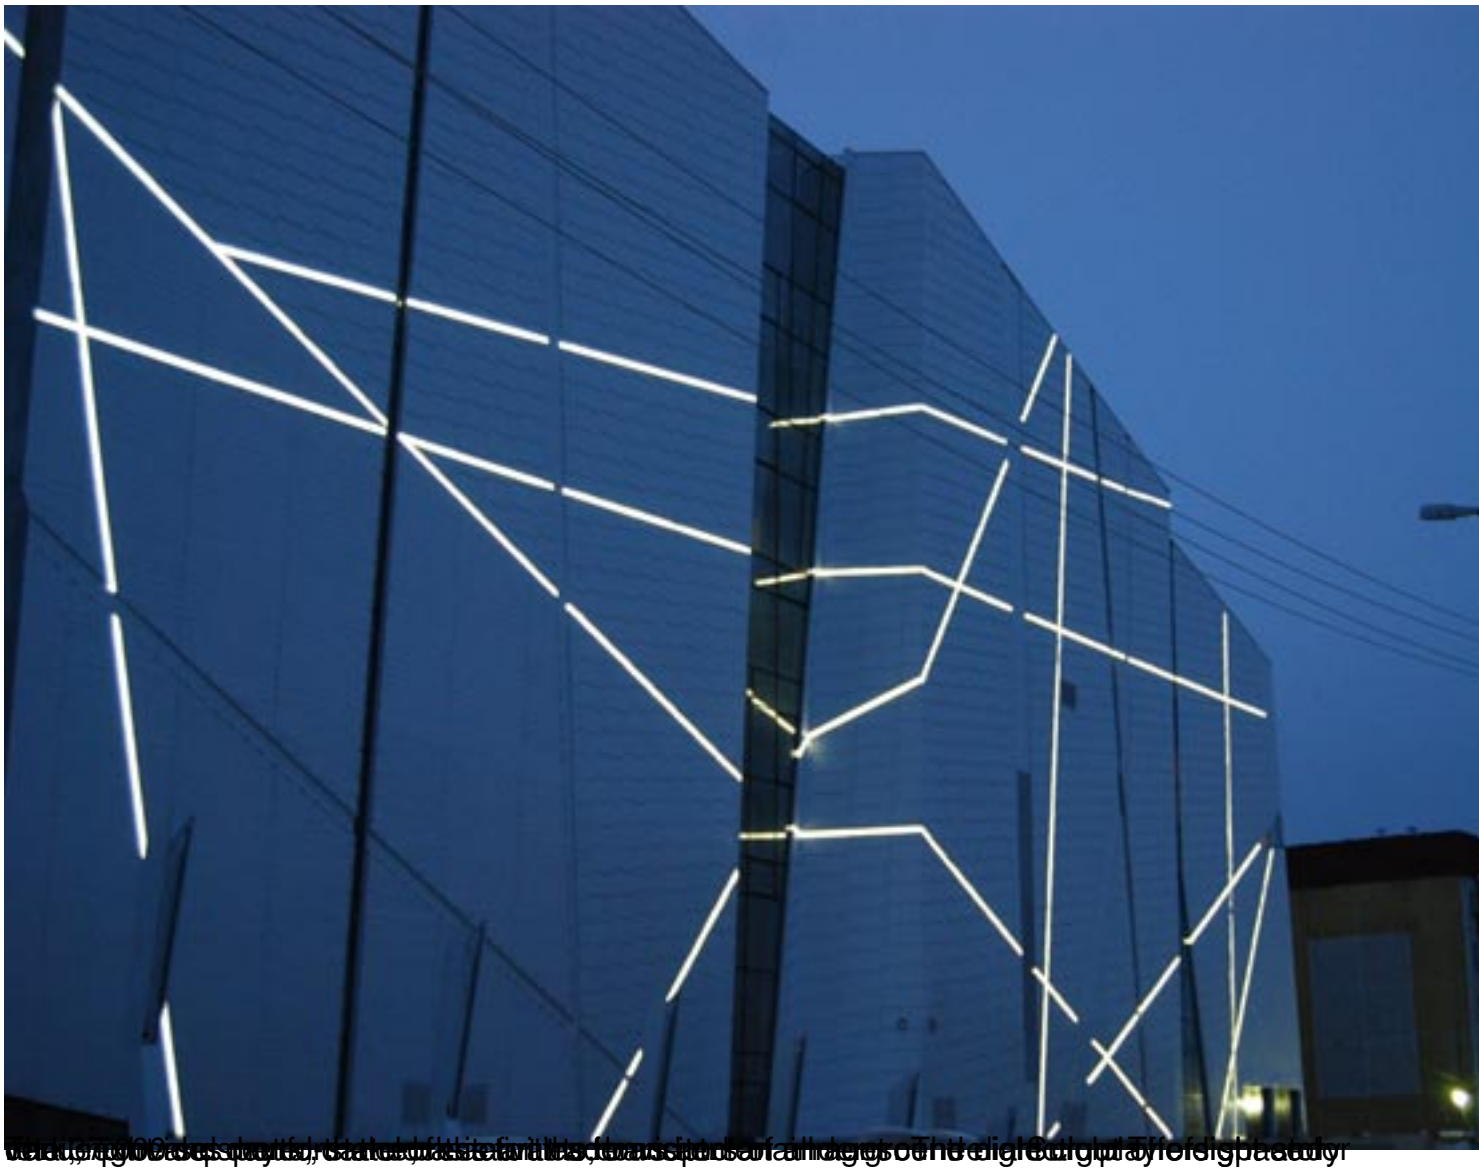
Last month, two projects of Dutch architect Erick van Egeraat officially opened in the Khanti-Mansiysk autonomous region. The Chess-club building in Khanty-Mansiysk and the Vershina trade & entertainment centre in Surgut.



The building is the third of Erick van Egeraat's two new projects in the city. This building is the first step in the redevelopment of



"Although this project is the first of Sergio's projects in Russia, it is not the first time he came to the region. He was asked to have a look at the site, which is part of the Epicentre and Tegeyarm complex, and he became very enthusiastic about the project. Sergio's response was

Plans of the Vershina trade and entertainment centre

{gallery}Gal/110101{/gallery}