

A-cero Architecture describes the design of this house as “The maximum expression of minimalism”. The house is situated in the upscale neighbourhood of “La Finca” in Pozuelo de Alarcón (Madrid), within an exclusive housing development, an area with wide green spaces, lakes and spectacular houses, and most of them actually designed by A-cero.

The swimming pool has been designed with straight lines and simple shapes.

View (67,00) through the glass wall of the swimming pool area (distorted image) designed by A-cero

Adding to the harmony of the whole project, A-cero has designed the 80 m2 geometric swimming

Brooklyn, December 2009 - Togo Architects

