A new school has just been inaugurated in the town of Sipoo, close to Helsinki, Finland. The building was designed by K2S Architects Ltd, who had won the design competition in 2004.

All photographs are courtesy of Marko Huttunen photographer.

Project description is provided by Mark architect.
All photographs are courtesy of Mark architect photographer.