

Last month, two projects of Dutch architect Erick van Egeraat officially opened in the Khanti-Mansiysk autonomous region. The Chess-club building in Khanty-Mansiysk and the Vershina trade & entertainment centre in Surgut.

~~The building is a modern structure with a curved, metallic, diamond-patterned facade. It features large glass windows and a prominent curved structure. The sky is overcast and grey.~~

Visiting building interior in future city, says Erick van Egeraat. The first step in the redevelopment of View of the building facade at dusk, showing the illuminated white lines on the dark blue background.

Minerals North West is a project of the Federal Government to create a response to the...
Minerals North West is a project of the Federal Government to create a response to the...

Plans of the building in the background of the river in the city of Khanty-Mansiysk, Siberia, the day before
Plans of the Verzhina trade and entertainment centre

{gallery}Gal/110101{/gallery}