

Building in a mountainous environment surely has its share of obstacles, but also opportunities to create a unique architecture solution that is proper to the site, its surrounding views, as well as the region in which it is situated.

House in Whistler's Spring Creek designed and constructed by a|k|a architecture + design

The total cost of the house was $1,200,000. The house was built on a 1/2 acre lot. The house is a 4000 sq ft house. The house is a 4000 sq ft house. The house is a 4000 sq ft house.

